

A map of the study area in the western North Atlantic. The map shows a grey-shaded region representing the study area, bounded by a red polygon. The x-axis represents longitude, with labels from 47.9°W to 47.3°W. The y-axis represents latitude, with labels from 42°N to 44°N. Black dots represent sampling locations within the study area.